SULLIVAN HILLS CAMP 2022

“I want you to know all about Christ’s love, although it is too wonderful to be measured. Then your lives will be filled with all that God is.”

–Ephesians 3:19 (CEV)

Long ago God’s people in exile in Babylon experienced the devastating loss of almost every part of their lives that had given them identity, purpose, confidence, and hope. Through this loss, they rediscovered God—the one who created and sustained them, and held them in loving hands. The awesome God of creation is also the merciful God of everyday life.

This summer, campers will explore the hopeful and saving story of God and God’s people. They will experience the good news of God’s generous and merciful power in their lives. Just as God was loving and faithful at the time of creation, in the life of Israel, and through Jesus Christ, so God continues to be in this world now.

God’s love for all is truly boundless.
